BOROUGH LOOKS TO OPEN LEISURE CENTRES

Council supports steps for government to help sites bounce back from lockdown

LEISURE centres may need a "financial rescue package" from the government to reopen, according to The District Councils' Network.

The group, which is a cross-party member-led network of 187 district councils, is forecasting a financial hit to leisure centres of around £305 million this year – which the group claims could send many out of business.

Despite many lockdown restrictions now being lifted by the government, leisure centres remain closed.

The unknown length of the continued closure and the need for social distancing, and the implications of reduced customer confidence and footfall, are concerning councils in the months ahead.

Report by Tom Martin

However, whilst West Lancashire Council say they would welcome government support, they are already planning for the reopening of their leisure centres once the green light is given.

A spokesperson said: "We welcome the steps that are being taken by the District Council Network, the Local Government Association and Sport England to gain government support for local authority leisure centres during these challenging times."

"COVID 19 has had an immediate and significantly detrimental effect on many sectors and this has definitely been the case for local authority leisure centres that rely heavily upon the income provided by customers to offset the costs of operation.

"West Lancashire Borough Council and West Lancashire Community Leisure Trust are currently working closely to ensure safe access to facilities for everyone to enjoy once the restrictions are relaxed. Customers will be required to keep their distance from others and to help with this the number of people able to access the facilities at any one time will be limited."

"The return to certain sports and activities is also dependent on national guidance. This is likely to see some sports able to return straight away and others returning later. To help with this we are developing a phased reopening plan that will allow us to meet the peaks in demand as they occur.

"In the longer term West Lancashire Borough Council remains committed to the development of new facilities for the Borough and are currently revisiting plans to reflect the impact of the virus."

"Like other councils across the country we are really keen to move forward as we know how much sport and leisure facilities mean to our communities and the important part they play in all our lives."

A firework explodes at the Liver Building - a Scarisbrick man was later charged with criminal damage and will appear at Crown Court.

Scarisbrick man charged over Liver Building firework

A 19-YEAR-old Scarisbrick man appeared in court on Monday after he was accused of setting off fireworks that caused £10,000 worth of damage to the Liver Building in Liverpool.

The incident took place during a widely-condemned celebration of Liverpool Football Club's 19th title win when thousands of people gathered at the city's Pier Head on Friday.

Matthew Eggesden, whose address was given as Turning Lane, Scarisbrick, Southport was arrested after footage appeared on social media which appeared to show a firework being directed ected towards the iconic building.

Several fireworks were set off in close proximity to the Grade I listed building and caused a blaze on a balcony resulting in £10,000 worth of damage.

Eggesden was charged with criminal damage caused by arson to the Liver Building and firing a firework in a public place.

He appeared at Liverpool Magistrates Court on Monday, June 29 when it was decided that the case should be sent to Liverpool Crown Court. Eggesden will next appear at court on July 27 where he will enter a plea to the first charge.

Police forced to use dispersal orders at quarry

New bid to stop anti-social behaviour at village site

Report by Tom Martin

WEST Lancashire police were forced to issue several dispersal orders in an area surrounding a quarry in Appley Bridge during last week's mini heatwave.

The quarry is a magnet for people during hot weather spells when they flock to the site to swim. However, local residents continuously experience anti-social behaviour with large groups from outside the area converging on the village.

In addition to the anti-social activities, police warn that quarry lakes, such as the one in Appley Bridge, are extremely deep, have sudden changes in water depth, are difficult to exit and conceal a range of hazards such as entangling weeds, and rocks.

West Lancashire MP Rosie Cooper raised the concerns of residents with local police, West Lancashire Borough Council and the Environment Agency calling for action to resolve the situation.

The EA confirmed that there is an outstanding application to 'dewater' the quarry, but that an ecological survey was yet to be submitted by the applicant, while the council and police are working together to discourage use of the site.

MP Cooper said: "For many years residents have been understandably concerned about people travelling to Appley Bridge for the purpose of trespassing into the quarry and using it as a swimming area. It is deeply worrying that many refuse to heed the advice from authorities to stay away from the quarry and not enter the dangerous water, where young people have drowned in the past.

"I have again raised my concerns and that of residents with the authorities stressing that all that can be done needs to be done to stop the public illegally entering.

"I am pleased to hear from the police that they have increased patrols in the area and issued fines as a deterrent.

"The council have confirmed to me that they are responsible for ensuring the landowner makes provision to ensure the fencing around the quarry is secure and timely repairs are being made, and they have contacted the landowner to remind him of his responsibilities."

Fans gather at the Pier Head

Club to consider banning any fan convicted of a criminal offence following disorder

In a separate charge, Eggesden will also appear on August 27 at Liverpool Magistrates' Court charged with lighting a firework in a public place.

Eggesden spoke to confirm his name, address and to indicate no plea to the offence. He was released on conditional bail, and must reside at the address listed on the court's system.

He has also been banned from entering Liverpool City Centre while on bail.

Thousands of Liverpool fans had gathered at the Pier Head on Friday, June 26 to celebrate the Reds clinching their first league title in 30 years – despite warnings over social distancing.

However, it turned into chaos with fireworks and flares set off, reports of violence towards police officers and fighting.

Fifteen people were arrested on suspicion of violent disorder and 34 people were injured.

A joint statement from Liverpool FC, Merseyside Police and Liverpool City Council described the scenes as "wholly unacceptable".

It read: "Several thousand people turned up at the Pier Head on Friday, June 26 and some chose to ignore the social distancing guidance and risk public safety. Our city is still in a public health crisis and this behaviour is wholly unacceptable.

"The potential danger of a second peak of COVID-19 still exists and we need to work together to make sure we don't undo everything that has been achieved as a region during lockdown.

"When it is safe to do so, we will all work together to arrange a victory parade when everyone can come together to celebrate. Until that time, the safety of our city and our people continues to be our number one priority."

Liverpool have warned that any fan convicted of a criminal offence during celebrations for their Premier League title win could have their future access to Anfield for home games removed.

Major new regional cancer hospital opens in Liverpool

Report by Tom Martin

A MAJOR new hospital that will transform cancer care in our region has opened in Liverpool.

The 11-storey Clatterbridge Cancer Centre – Liverpool (CCC-L), opened to patients on Monday, (June 29), and will deliver highly-specialist care. It is the city's first dedicated cancer hospital.

Treatment will include pioneering immunotherapy and the most advanced forms of radiotherapy to the 2.4 million people in Merseyside and Cheshire.

It is part of a £162million investment in expanding and transforming cancer services across the region – where, statistically, people are more likely to develop the disease than almost anywhere else in the country.

The new hospital will also allow the NHS to resume normal clinical activity during the COVID-19 outbreak by providing protected facilities for people with cancer – many of whom are particularly at risk if they catch the virus – as well as releasing capacity in other hospitals in the region.

Sitting in the heart of the Knowledge Quarter in Liverpool, the hospital is adjacent to Royal Liverpool University Hospital and the University of Liverpool.

Its 110 fully-single en-suite bedrooms will provide inpatients with total privacy as well as reducing any risk of infections. This is especially relevant during the pandemic. Dr Liz Bishop, Chief Executive of The Clatterbridge Cancer Centre NHS Foundation Trust, said: "Clatterbridge Cancer Centre – Liverpool is the culmination of an eight-year project for transforming cancer care in a region with one of the highest rates of cancer in the country.

"It brings state-of-the-art facilities, novel treatments and research together to improve outcomes and save lives in Cheshire and Merseyside at a time when one in two of us will get cancer in our lifetime. We are tremendously excited about opening Clatterbridge Cancer Centre – Liverpool. It has been a huge labour of love and I would like to pay tribute to our staff, the Laing O'Rourke site team, our suppliers, subcontractors and all the partners who by working together have made this happen."

Metro Mayor of the Liverpool City Region Steve Rotherham added: "The opening of this crucial facility will be of huge benefit to the people of the city region.

"This is especially good news in these current testing times when NHS resources have been so stretched dealing with coronavirus. It adds to our city region's strengths in health and life sciences and is yet another world-leading asset for the growing Knowledge Quarter."

Mayor of Liverpool Joe Anderson, added: "The opening of the new Clatterbridge Cancer Centre is fantastic news for Liverpool and the region, and for everyone who will receive world class treatment there.

"The building, the research and the care that will take place there is a tremendous boost to the city's position as a world leader in medicine – and further underlines the growing international reputation of our multi-billion pound Knowledge Quarter, with the nearby Paddington Village also quickly taking shape."

Fire chiefs 'debunk myth' alcohol-based hand sanitiser can catch fire in hot cars

FIRE brigade bosses have rubbished claims that bottles of alcohol-based hand sanitiser could catch fire if they are left in cars during hot weather spells.

The National Fire Chiefs Council said such hand sanitisers kept in cars 'do not pose a fire risk'.

An internal NHS memo had warned staff about the dangers of leaving alcohol-based hand gel to overheat in cars. The briefing, from NHS Property Services, to staff claimed they had received a 'number of reports' of hand sanitiser being the cause of fires when left in vehicles in hot weather.

However, fire chiefs said they wanted to 'debunk the myth' and pointed out that sanitiser kept in cars does not pose a fire risk.

Their intervention followed widespread coverage online of the so-called fire risk, with chiefs adding, "we refute this - and confirm there have been no cases of such fires in the UK."

NHS bosses have since clarified hand sanitiser cannot ignite on its own and would need a spark to be set alight. An NHS Property Services spokesman said the alarm was raised by union safety officers who had heard about hand sanitiser car fires in the US.

£500k fund secured to help victims of domestic or sexual abuse

Report by Tom Martin

MORE than £500,000 has been secured to support services that help victims and survivors of domestic or sexual abuse in Lancashire.

Lancashire's Police and Crime Commissioner Clive Grunshaw has received the funding from the Ministry of Justice, which will help local services to meet the additional costs they have incurred while adapting their services in response to the pandemic, and to cope with any increases in demand as a result of it.

PCC Clive Grunshaw said: "I am delighted to secure extra funding to support people affected by domestic or sexual abuse right here in Lancashire.

"It is so important that victims and survivor have access to specialist services where and when they need them and this funding will ensure that this is happening.

"The pandemic continues to put extra pressures on families and relationships and whilst that should never be an excuse for any kind of violence, the reality is that some people will be affected by abuse.

"We have fantastic local services and I am really pleased to be able to offer them this additional support."

14 organisations across the county, including The Liberty Centre, in Ormskirk, will benefit from the additional funding which will be used cover costs for additional support such as work with Independent Domestic Violence Advisers, extra counselling hours or investing in online chat facilities and telephone support to provide additional help remotely.

Debbie Fawcett, CEO at HARV and Chair of the Lancashire Domestic Abuse Forum added: "This is really welcome news both for services and for anyone affected by abuse here in Lancashire. As a collective, services across the county work really hard to support abuse survivors and the extra funding will help us to further adapt our services in response to the pandemic so that we can continue to help people in the best way possible."

Catherine Smith, CEO at Trust House, a specialist service for sexual violence survivors agreed: "It is really important that we can continue to offer the best support to victims during the pandemic. The current situation is hard for everyone but survivors of sexual violence and abuse need our support more than ever. The funding will help us to continue to offer that support so that anyone affected can access the support they need and deserve to move forward."

Smokers urged to quit and 'love your lungs' instead!

LANCASHIRE & South Cumbria NHS Foundation Trust is urging smokers to take that first step to kicking the habit following Love Your Lungs Week.

The Trust's stop smoking service, Quit Squad, is marking the week, which was marked from June 22-28, by inviting people to ditch the cigarettes with their support.

The service, which offers free advice to anyone over the age of 12, warns smokers have an increased risk of contracting respiratory infections, which is of particular concern during the coronavirus pandemic.

Smokers are three times more likely to stop with the help of the Quit Squad, which includes a 12-week course of advice sessions with experts and a pack of support materials.

Love Your Lungs Week, organised by the British Lung Foundation, urges people to take action to look after their lung health by finding the right support and online tools for them.

Tracy Sutton, Team Manager, from the Lancashire Quit Squad, said: "For every person who dies from smoking, another 30 are suffering from a serious smoking-related illness, so it really is essential that we encourage more people to kick the habit with our help.

"Quitting at any age can lengthen your life and improve your quality of life, so it's never too late to stop smoking and we would urge all smokers to take that first step today."

To refer yourself to Quit Squad, phone your local team on Freephone 0800 328 6297, between 9am and 5pm, Monday to Friday (excluding Bank Holidays). Outside of these times please leave a message and contact number for a call back.

Piglet

Hairless cat given a fur chance to find another home!

'Piglet' was found abandoned in a box - but now has new owners

By Danielle Thompson

EVERYONE loves a happy ending – and nobody more than the team at Woodlands Animal Sanctuary!

The team at the charity on Sandy Lane, in Holmewood, have been looking for a very specialised home for a very special moggy.

The quirkily-named Piglet, who is a sphynx, came into their care in April after a pedigree breeder found her abandoned in a box on her doorstep.

On arrival, she was exhibiting signs of cat flu, but that has now been treated and she has received her first vaccination, been spayed and micro-chipped.

Sally McDerby from the charity said: "As a result of a post on Facebook, the team have found her new, loving forever home - what a fabulous result! Especially because Sphinx cats need quite a lot of specialist care, to keep them happy and healthy.

"The sanctuary is very happy to have found a suitable home for her so quickly, given her requirements.

"It is also worth keeping an eye on our social media platforms for you daily dose of cuteness – because we currently have 21 kittens in our care!

"We have received numerous applications for these kittens, but they are not all ready to be rehomed just yet, and so if you are serious about welcoming a kitten into your life and your home then visit their website to complete the application form.

"Do remember though, that it is not only kittens who are looking for their second chance of a happy every after – the rescue has a number of cats who due to their age, colour, care needs, may not seem as attractive as a cute kitten – but kittens do grow up, and while many of them were born at Woodlands, or came into our care very soon after, they do not have the memory of their betrayal quite so fresh in their minds.

"Call us on 01704 823293, or visit www.woodlandsanimalsanctuary.org.uk to find out who could be the perfect new addition to your family."

Community centre plans given a £25,000 boost

THE Trustees of Hesketh Bank Community Centre are having a double celebration after being successful in securing £25,000 from the Garfield Weston Foundation, which takes them over their target of £394,000 for their redevelopment plans.

The Garfield Weston Foundation is a grant-giving charity based in the United Kingdom. It was established in 1958 by Canadian businessman Willard Garfield Weston, who moved to the UK with his family in 1932.

During his lifetime he contributed to numerous humanitarian causes, both personally and through his companies, most notably Associated British Foods.

Steve Kirby, Chairman, said: "This means so much to us, as we can now provide our community with the new hall it desperately needs".

The Trustees are now taking forward their plans and hope to start work next month, with additional fundraising now being sought for landscaping, fixtures and fittings, and unexpected costs that have been incurred.

Commuters who can't access train station to get added support

Taxis to be offered to those who struggle to get onto platform

Report by Tom Martin

WEST Lancashire MP Rosie Cooper has received assurances from the Liverpool City Region about Merseyrail's continued support for those who require taxis from Aughton Park train station to the next nearest accessible station.

The update came following confirmation from the Department for Transport and Merseyrail that there is currently no funding available for converting Aughton Park train station to step-free access.

Rosie Cooper MP wrote to the Transport Secretary urging him to bring forward more funding to increase accessibility and further contacted Network Rail and Merseyrail.

Merseyrail confirmed that the cost of delivering step free access at Aughton Park would likely be in excess of £4million, and would not be funded by DfT.

MP Cooper however received assurances from Liverpool City Region that Merseyrail would provide a taxi for any customer that needs to travel from an inaccessible station upon request.

She said: "It is disappointing that the Department for Transport are not providing funding to enable Aughton Park to become a step free access station, but I will continue to campaign for the funding at every opportunity.

"In the meantime I am pleased that Merseyrail are continuing to support my West Lancashire constituents who would use Aughton Park station but are unable to do so due to its inaccessibility, with the provision of taxis to the nearest step free access station, at Ormskirk or Town Green.

"I would encourage those who are eligible to use the scheme to make full use of this additional support."

Five star runners raise vital funds for charity

Report by Tom Martin

RUNNERS, walkers and cyclists in West Lancashire took part in a five-mile challenge for charity.

The challenge, in aid of the Cystic Fibrosis Trust, involved participants who completed five miles and then donated £5 to the charity.

The event has raised over £1,400 for the Cystic Fibrosis Trust and more than 700 miles have been travelled.

Margaret Ellams the Chairperson of Ormskirk & District Branch of the Trust said: "This has been a real fun event and we're very grateful to everyone who took up the challenge. There has been such a lot of enthusiasm from everyone taking part culminating in the Wear Yellow Day run of 5 miles when runners encountered a mixture of weather conditions beginning with a downpour moving to lovely sunshine and ending with a deluge!

"They didn't mind as it was all in a good cause. Sincere thanks to all who have raised such a magnificent sum for our charity."

Around 10,500 people in the UK have cystic fibrosis; that's 1 in every 2,500 babies born. Cystic fibrosis affects around 100,000 people in the world.

Town centre revamp still on track despite council's costly pandemic struggles

Report by Danielle Thompson

PLANS to regenerate Skelmersdale Town Centre remain on track despite concerns that the pandemic had wiped out council spending powers.

West Lancashire MP Rosie Cooper has welcomed the council's continued commitment to finally deliver an improved town centre.

In light of the coronavirus crisis, concerned residents contacted Rosie Cooper MP worried that council funding for the scheme may have been used up in the pandemic response.

She has received assurances from West Lancashire Borough Council who were 'pleased to confirm unequivocally that no such redirection of funding has taken place and the Council has the necessary financial resources for this project.'

The town centre redevelopment scheme is a partnership between the Borough Council, Homes England and developer St Modwen, and supported by the Lancashire Local Enterprise Partnership.

Builders arrived on site in January to start construction work on the scheme which will breathe new life into the area by bringing significant investment and new jobs. This project will provide benefits for the whole of West Lancashire not just Skelmersdale.

Phase one will see new shops created to house Lidl and B&M Bargains, and another retail unit will also be constructed. A fantastic new play area will be created in Tawd Valley Park and a new high street will be provided to link West Lancashire College with the rest of the town centre. Enhancements will also be made to the public areas outside Skelmersdale Library.

West Lancashire MP Rosie Cooper said: "Residents were understandably concerned that with the pandemic and the council's major response to supporting residents that there may have been a gap in funding left for the delivery of Skelmersdale Town Centre."

"Having written to West Lancashire Borough Council, I am pleased to receive their absolute assurance that funding remains in place to complete the development and their continued commitment to deliver."

"Phase One of Skelmersdale Town Centre will bring new retail opportunities for the town."

"The new town centre will give a boost to the plans for a Skelmersdale Railway Station and encourage investment in the Concourse, which we have already seen with the announcement of the new cinema."

"The council now needs to press on with developing a 'night-time' economy for Skelmersdale including family restaurants and leisure facilities. It will also enable Skelmersdale shops and businesses to benefit from the ninety percent of Skelmersdale 'spend', which is actually spent outside of the town."

Train services to increase as lockdown restrictions are eased

MERSEYRAIL will increase its train services from this Sunday as more lockdown restrictions are lifted.

More trains will be put on the tracks by the rail provider to support the expected rise in passenger numbers, as more people begin to make necessary journeys.

The advice is still to avoid public transport if possible, and Merseyrail say they are doing all they can to ensure passenger safety.

From Sunday, July 5, a summary of the changes locally are as follows:

Monday to Saturday:

- Southport line – services will return to running every 15 minutes throughout the day.
- Hunts Cross line - services will return to running every 15 minutes throughout the day.
- Kirkby line – a 30-minute service will run all day
- Ormskirk line - a 30-minute service will run all day

Sunday:

- Southport line - a 15-minute service will run from start of service until 7pm, then every 30 minutes until end of service.

- Hunts Cross line - an hourly service will run all day
- Kirkby line – an hourly service will run all day
- Ormskirk line – an hourly service will run all day

Full timetables and details can be found on the Merseyrail website, and passengers are encouraged to check before they travel.

This can be done by visiting www.merseyrail.org, the Merseyrail Twitter account @merseyrail or by sending a message on WhatsApp on 0151 555 1111.

Andy Heath, Managing Director at Merseyrail, said: "Following the Government's announcement, we are now in a position to increase our services in anticipation of increased numbers of passengers using our trains."

It is mandatory for people to wear face masks when using public transport.

Pandemic won't put the brakes on this year's Ormskirk Motorfest!

Annual event WILL go ahead in August - but in a new 'tour' format

Report by Danielle Thompson

THIS year's Ormskirk Motorfest will go ahead, but organisers have changed the format of the event to a 'tour across the borough'.

There had been concerns that the event would be cancelled due to the pandemic, but it will be held on Sunday, August 30 as a one-off tour through a number of areas in West Lancashire.

A spokesperson for West Lancs Borough Council explained: "We know Ormskirk MotorFest is welcomed by many so this year to help us all stay safe we are bringing the sights and sounds of this great occasion to you."

"Government guidance means we cannot offer large events where people would gather and so we have arranged with the organisers, Aintree Circuit Club, for the cars and motorcycles to tour around areas of the borough on Sunday, August 30."

Ormskirk town centre packed with visitors at the 2019 Motorfest

Councillor David Evans, whose Cabinet responsibilities include MotorFest, said: "Many of us really like the MotorFest and bringing the event to different parts of West Lancashire means we can enjoy the event in a new way while staying safe."

"The current plan is to bring the cars to Burscough and Skelmersdale as well as Ormskirk as these are the main residential areas of West Lancashire and we will let everyone know the final details of the event when they are drawn up."

Mike Ashcroft, Chairman of Aintree Circuit Club, said: "This will be the 10th Ormskirk MotorFest and bringing the vehicles to different parts of the Borough is a great way to celebrate. We are working on making this a fantastic event for us all to enjoy."

Terence Aldridge

New Mayor of West Lancs appointed

THE new Mayor of West Lancashire has been named as Councillor Terence Aldridge.

Mr Aldridge, who will replace Cllr Gaynar Owen in the role, has been Deputy Mayor of West Lancashire since May 2019 and has served the community of Moorside as a member of West Lancashire Council since 1992. He is also a County Councillor for Skelmersdale Central.

He said: "The people of West Lancashire have been a fantastic support for each other throughout the pandemic. My aim as Mayor is to strengthen this unity as we continue to support the vulnerable and the elderly in our communities."

To do this, the Mayor will be fund raising to support Skelmersdale Veterans Association, the Liberty Centre, the Evermoor Hub, the Birchwood Centre and Skelmersdale Junior Football League.

Pagoda to be demolished to make town centre 'safer' for shoppers to social distance

By Danielle Thompson

WEST Lancashire Borough Council will remove the pagoda at Wheatsheaf Walk, in Ormskirk, after claiming it will make the town centre safer for shoppers during the pandemic.

The removal of the pagoda, which has been opposed by some residents and councillors, will "make the area more open" as locals try to keep social distancing.

The proposed scheme was voted through at the council's Executive Overview and Scrutiny Committee on June 25 as part of wider proposals to improve the town centre.

Our West Lancashire Councillor Adrian Owens, who was against the plan, said: "There are arguments both ways, but our argument is that given the public outcry about the decision to remove the pagoda in isolation and not as part of a comprehensive improvement scheme, it was right to halt and carry out another consultation that engaged local residents."

In response, Councillor Ian Moran, Leader of West Lancashire Borough Council, said: "Our public space plans are to enhance West Lancashire for everyone to use and enjoy. The removal of the pagoda will make the businesses within Wheatsheaf Walk more visible from Burscough Street and assist their trade at a difficult time for retailers."

"The whole scheme will make Wheatsheaf Walk a really attractive

space for people to visit the town centre."

A spokesperson for West Lancashire Borough Council said: "We have brought forward the idea to remove the pagoda separately from the rest of the Wheatsheaf Walk project in response to the coronavirus pandemic, as this will increase the visibility of businesses and make the area more open to help keep everyone safe."

"This first step can be done quickly with minimal disruption for businesses. It is just one element of ambitious plans to invest in public realm works across the borough. The proposals for Wheatsheaf Walk, with new paving, lighting and seating and enhancing the existing wheatsheaf stone motif, as important recognition of its history, will be undertaken as soon as possible after the removal of the pagoda and planters."

Decluttering and downsizing in later life

Anyone who has ever moved home knows that sorting, packing, and unpacking can be a time-consuming and strenuous process.

With Adlington Retirement Living help is on hand each step of the way, so you can look forward to the next chapter of retirement.

Alexandra Johnson, Sales and Marketing Director, explains: "Our team do everything they can to make each move into one of our apartments as stress-free and positive as possible, from offering part exchanges to providing a consultation with a Senior Move Manager. Our specialist partner, The Senior Move Partnership, offers services to take the stress, hard work and worry out of moving."

Michelle and her team offer a range of services depending on each client's needs.

"Some clients are happy to sort through their belongings themselves and might just want my help organising where it's all going to. Others might want help sorting through everything - from the contents of their wardrobes and drawers to their kitchens, lofts, sheds and garages. We take one room at a time and sit together so they can decide what they want to do with each item and then we make it happen.

"Sometimes a client might ask us to arrange for treasured possessions to be passed to family members. Other items might no longer be required, and we will arrange for them to be sent to auction, sold, donated or recycled."

Every Homeowner moving into an Adlington development receives eight hours of support from a handyman.

Alexandra Johnson said: "It's an extra helping hand that makes a big difference to our Homeowners."

The whole moving process can be taken care of, leaving you to look forward to settling into your new home.

Senior Move Manager Michelle Park and her colleagues create a bespoke plan of support based on individual needs.

Michelle said: "The most important part of our job is getting to know each Homeowner, building a rapport with them and finding out how they would like us to help them.

Independent living with everything on your doorstep

Retirement living is inspired living with Adlington. In our welcoming community, you can set your own timetable and live life however you choose, free from everyday worries and compromise. # Film directed by lecturer gets rave reviews in America

Report by Tom Martin

A FILM directed by an Edge Hill University lecturer and proved to be a big hit in the UK has started to receive rave reviews in America after it was released last week.

Sometimes Always Never, which was first screened in this country last year, stars Bill Nighy and features several scenes filmed next to the Iron Men statues on Crosby beach.

The film was directed by Edge Hill University senior lecturer Carl Hunter and written by Crosby-based screenwriter Frank Cottrell Boyce.

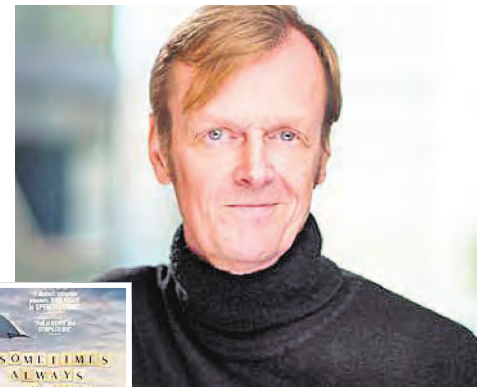

It was released in America only last week and has been well received across the pond.

Carl said: "The film was released to an overwhelming amount of flattering reviews. It's quite exciting to see the film talked about in such a wonderful way by The LA Times, Washington Post, New York Post or Variety. Shame I can't be over there."

Described in the USA reviews as "a witty, idiosyncratic British film" and "well worth a watch". The talents of all involved have been praised and hailed as "enthraling".

Sometimes Always Never tells the tale of a Scrabble-obsessed Merseyside tailor, Alan, played by Bill Nighy, whose eldest son stormed out of the family home after a particularly heated game of Scrabble, never to return. Alan must repair the relationship with his youngest son, Peter, before they can finally move on.

The well-known British actor spoke about his enjoyable experience working with Carl and commended his style for the film.

He said: "I really, really, really enjoyed working with him. He's a very thoroughly decent man, very funny and very bright and sophisticated—and very knowledgeable about films and the general aesthetic."

"I loved his notions about the style, I loved his juxtaposition between naturalism and very heightened stylistic framing and context. I just thought it was witty. The experience of working with him was nothing but deeply pleasant."

Students from Edge Hill had the opportunity to work with Carl and the team during filming and helped to create the soundtrack.

The film, which was co-produced with Edge Hill lecturer Clare Heney, was selected to show at the British Film Institute's film festival last year and has also received critical acclaim following cinema releases in Australia, Europe and Ireland.

OLD BED RECYCLING SERVICE

Get ready for more lockdown measures to be eased on Saturday

JUST in case you needed any reminding, a series of measures further easing the lockdown in England will come into effect from Saturday, July 4.

The two metre distancing guidance will change to 'one metre plus' meaning that where it is not possible to stay 2m apart, people should keep a distance of 'one metre plus' while observing precautions to reduce the risk of transmission.

New re-openings will include holiday accommodation, libraries, community centres, bingo halls, cinemas, museums and galleries, along with funfairs and theme parks, amusement arcades, outdoor skating rinks, indoor leisure centres, social clubs and model villages – but nail bars, nightclubs and casinos will remain closed, as well as bowling alleys, spas, swimming pools and indoor soft play centres.

Restaurants and pubs in England will also be allowed to reopen, providing they follow safety measures.

All hospitality indoors will be limited to table service, and contact between staff and customers will be restricted.

Theatres and concert halls will not be able to host live performances – but the government will work with the arts industry on specific guidance to enable choirs, orchestras and theatres to resume live events as soon as possible.

Places of worship will be able to open for prayers and services, including weddings with up to 30 guests – subject to social distancing.

More outdoor spaces will open if they can do so safely, including outdoor gyms and children's playgrounds.

Indoor gatherings of any two households will be allowed from July 4.

People will be able to visit someone's house or to stay over, for example, with grandparents, as long as social distancing is observed.

This does not have to be the same set of households – Prime Minister Boris Johnson confirmed: "It will be possible for instance to meet one set of grandparents one weekend, and the others the following weekend."

However, the government does not recommend meetings of multiple households indoors because of the continued risk of infection.

In further moves the government is no longer holding daily Downing Street press conferences – a fixture of the coronavirus pandemic since the beginning of the lockdown.

Full list of businesses reopening:

Hotels, hostels, bed and breakfast accommodation, holiday apartments or homes, cottages or bungalows, campsites, caravan parks or boarding houses; places of worship; libraries; community centres; restaurants, cafes and workplace canteens.

Bars; pubs; cinemas; bingo halls; theatres and concert halls (but no live performances); museums and galleries; hair salons and barbers; outdoor playgrounds; outdoor gyms; funfairs, theme parks and adventure parks and activities.

Amusement arcades; outdoor skating rinks; other indoor leisure centres or facilities, including indoor games, recreation and entertainment venues; social clubs; model villages.

Indoor attractions at aquariums, zoos, safari parks, farms, wildlife centres and any place where animals are exhibited to the public as an attraction.

Safer Travel taskforce needs suggestions for West Lancs

I think it would be a great idea to notify all residents about the Lancs County Council 'Safer Travel Suggestion' forms which can be filled out using the link below.

The Lancashire Safer Travel Restart taskforce has been established to ensure we can safely move about as restrictions are eased.

They're really keen to identify any locations with high footfall and high levels of cycle activity, such as in town centres or along routes to school.

Our colleagues in highways are working hard to identify these routes and put in place safety measures or temporary extra lanes, but as we are a big county, it's a massive task.

As people return to work and school, the roads are likely to be busier so we want to put measures in place to encourage active travel, especially if less people are using public transport.

The more suggestions that come in from West Lancashire the better, as currently, there are barely any cycle lanes at all in the district and we all know how lethal the roads can be, with yet another fatality a couple of weeks back near Formby, along Altcar Lane.

As most of the investment gets directed towards Preston and Lancaster, we could do with applying more pressure on LCC to focus their investments more on West Lancs. We can do this by firing off lots of suggestions using the link provided.

Mixed messages on wearing of masks on Merseyrail lines

I had to use a train for the first time in three months, and as many may know - it is compulsory to wear a mask.

However, different train stations are more strict, as you had to wear one on the platform at Freshfield, and there were guards to make sure of this, however at different stations on the Southport to Liverpool line and Liverpool to Ormskirk line, there were people not wearing masks at all on the train, which shows this rule is not being consistently enforced.

Personally, I disagree with wearing masks, as I believe they are detrimental to the immune system - but rules are rules, and rules should be consistently enforced, which is clearly not happening.

On a positive note, Merseyrail have been extremely punctual, as always.

Otis Saroke, Ormskirk

Missed opportunity

The multi million pound 'world beating' Covid 19 contact tracing app, which government ministers have been falling over themselves to promote to us, will now not be ready until winter at the earliest!

And the other £46 million government 'spinner' for tracing and tracking the virus, which is meant to prevent a lethal second wave, may not be functioning properly until Autumn!

But the NHS already had a highly experienced army of contact tracers, specialists who deal with sexually transmitted diseases and know confidently how to deal with people's private information and how to find who they have been in contact with.

The contract ought to have been given to them but instead because this government is constantly trying to use the Coronavirus crisis to further privatise our beloved NHS, it has instead, been given to a bunch of amateur, know nothings, called Serco, who have already subcontracted half the contract!

Mark Holt, Sefton

Would you credit it... kind shoppers paid wife's bill

I was waiting in our car in Morrison's car park for my wife to return from shopping.

When she did arrive back she appeared a little flustered, but pleased at the same time.

When I asked her what was the problem, she explained that she had bought some goods and was at the self-service till and was ready to pay the bill.

She then realised that, after entering the items into the till, it required her to pay by credit card only.

My wife doesn't use a credit card and always pays by cash, and so was looking for an assistant to help.

Two fellow shoppers were near her and actually paid her bill, but wouldn't accept my wife's offer of recompense in cash and actually left the shop despite my wife's protestations.

We would like to use your auspices to say how grateful we are to those lovely shoppers who helped so much.

Ken and Cathy Hannah,
West Lancashire

Jim's column missed by so many readers

I read the sad news of Jim Sharpe's death.

I always had intentions of contacting Jim to say how much I enjoyed his column and how often I would agree with him. He would literally observe situations that I had also and his columns were always delivered with great humour.

Sadly, I never did get around to writing to him but I hope he knew just how much he was appreciated and how his column was the first page myself, and others, turned to when the Champion dropped on the mat. You will definitely be missed by your many readers.

Kathryn Kelly, Birkdale

Don't let developers deprive us of magnificent Parbold Hill

The car parks are all railed off and the Miller & Carter restaurant is deserted for now.

But, on this beautiful hot summer's day the ice cream man is back - hurray! and doing a roaring trade.

Parbold Hill has never been busier. The cars fill the layby so close together it's hard to open a door and squeeze out into the cool air, to drink in the magnificent view over the valley of the River Douglas.

Families with babies in push chairs, with dogs on leads, with toddlers on shoulders, and granny with her stick, all enjoying fresh air and freedom after lockdown and straining to see the distant silver line...ah, the sea!

We will always remember, won't we, to appreciate this heart-stopping view... won't we?

Well that rather depends!

Should Maybrook Developments have its way, then Parbold Hill may become a dump for anything up to four years.

Much as we exult in the panoramic view and walk the footpaths and visit the historic 'Bottle' to celebrate the emancipation of the working man, there remains a plan to bring 120,000 tonnes of builders' rubble, travelling in thousands of HGVs, chugging over the Hill, spewing out their diesel fumes.

Bulldozers are to smash a new entrance into the old quarry site. Its position is marked out just short of the Miller and Carter restaurant. Good luck with dining al fresco after the lockdown!

Walking to the Bottle will be fun as you negotiate the turning lorries cutting across the footpath into the site!

Why is it possible that we are to be deprived of this magnificent piece of our Green Belt for years to come?

The owner says that Parbold Quarry requires 'repair and maintenance'. That it's necessary to seal the leaking surface by burying it under thousands of tonnes of lucrative landfill.

The Hill was last maintained in 2013. The owner at the time, protective of this popular beauty spot, carried out small-scale, essential repairs using the original entrance. You probably didn't even notice it happen!

Believe me you'll notice this time - unless you object!

Penny Walker, Parbold

Seed deliveries allow volunteers to grow their support network!

Report by Tom Martin

SUNFLOWER seeds sent through the post is just one of the many ways that the Macmillan Information and Support Service in West Lancashire are supporting shielding cancer patients.

The seeds were sent out to 86 vulnerable patients to let them know that the Skelmersdale-based service was thinking of them, helping them feel connected and providing a wellbeing boost.

This was on top of a range of practical steps implemented by the team from their unit in the Concourse Shopping Centre.

Caroline Flynn, Macmillan Information and Support Service Manager said: "We've supported patients by organising food deliveries and providing financial support, and devices, to help ease isolation. But the simple little sunflower seeds have truly brought the widest smiles to people shielding."

"The arrival of seeds in the post with a little poem to cheer them up made people feel that somebody out there truly cared about them."

"Even though the shielding lockdown is going to be eased there will still be many cancer patients who do not feel confident about going back out into the wider world. They are going to require our ongoing support for some considerable time."

Throughout the pandemic, the team has kept in regular telephone contact with patients, offers virtual health and wellbeing sessions, signposts to virtual adult learning classes, and encouraged patients to support one another through WhatsApp groups and social media.

Staff from Macmillan Information and Support Service in West Lancashire

The sunflower seeds, which were sent with an uplifting short poem, were clearly the icing on the cake of a raft of support – and were hugely appreciated by patients.

The West Lancs Information and Support Service remains open for advice via telephone, text email or Skype from Monday to Friday 9am-4pm (closed bank holidays). Or call 01695 402164.

Pupils delighted to finally return to the classroom!

Report by Tom Martin

CHILDREN from an Ormskirk primary school were delighted to get back into the classroom last week and enjoy some outdoor activities.

Following months of lockdown, some pupils have been allowed back into school and those arriving back at Downholland Hakayne Primary School enjoyed a busy week.

A spokesperson for the school said: "Children were welcomed back to school this week with a host of outdoor activities to reinvigorate their hearts, souls and love for learning!

"The children have made some natural rainbows to symbolise hope for the future and to say a big thank you to everyone for playing their part in staying safe."

Couple open their garden to the public to raise funds for charity

A BURSCOUGH couple are opening their garden to the public to raise much-needed funds for charity.

Sandra and Peter Curl are taking part in The National Garden Scheme, which gives visitors access to over 3,700 private gardens in England and Wales.

Money is then raised through entrance fees, plant sales, teas and cakes, which is donated to charity.

Sandra and Peter's garden is located at their home: 79 Crabtree Lane, Burscough, L40 0RW, which will be open from Sunday, July 5 to Tuesday, July 7.

To meet current coronavirus restrictions, admission will be by appointment only which can be booked on the National Garden Scheme website <https://ngs.org.uk/>.

Admission is £4 and children free with each 2 hour booking slot is limited to 20 visitors.

The garden is a three quarter acre of plants, with many rare and unusual plants. It is made up of many 'rooms' all with a different theme and planting structure.

Aughton Park Ormskirk, Lancashire

Aughton Park offers care and comfort, compassion and friendship. At the heart of all they offer is assurance that all residents will be treated with the respect and dignity that they all deserve, and they are there to help, 24 hours a day.

Aughton Park pride themselves on supporting residents to spend time on things they enjoy, whether this is in the privacy of their own room or relaxing in the company of friends and neighbours.

During lockdown they have taken this to a new level!

Music

Aughton Park have had a range of musical activities at the home. From arranging for a piper to come and play in the car park, entertaining the residents and for anyone who could hear far and wide his beautiful music. They also arrange for two singers to come and perform in the car park, these were popular local singers Rob Steele and Kelly Bond.

As well as live music, the staff at Aughton Park arranged for Music Therapy sessions with a trained therapist which were held over Zoom. This not only engaged the residents with technology, but it meant they could keep up their favourite hobby during lockdown.

Clap for Carers

Each Thursday, the staff and residents of Aughton Park headed outside to be with their neighbours in the adjacent apartments to stand and show their appreciation at 8pm. This really brought the community together and helped to boost the moral of Aughton Park care givers.

Zoom and Facetime Calls

The world of technology meant that in a time when friends and family couldn't see each other, they could still stay very much connected. The staff at Aughton Park ensured they really made the most of this. They arranged for regular Facetime calls between residents and their families, to make sure they stayed in touch even though they were unable to see each other. The staff also helped the residents to record video and picture messages which were sent to their loved ones to keep as a treasured memory. For those who were feeling a bit more adventurous, the staff arranged for armchair exercise sessions to be held over Zoom – these went down a storm!

Parties and Visits

To ensure the residents could maintain some kind of normality, the staff arranged for pre booked socially distanced visiting sessions restricted to 3 per day. The area was thoroughly cleaned and sanitised after each visit. As well as this, they threw a huge British themed afternoon tea party for Trooping the Colour which the residents absolutely loved!

PCS - Passionate about care and committed to you!

During lockdown, PCS put on a host of activities and events to keep their clients entertained

VE Day Celebrations

8th May saw the UK celebrate VE Day, in honour of 75th anniversary. PCS put together a Remembrance Day Video which included their Staff and Clients singing "Pack up your old kit bag", this Video can be viewed on their Facebook Page. It's really worth a view as in PCS words 'we have some of the cutest clients!'

Mothers Day and Fathers Day

Due to visiting restrictions, many clients couldn't have visits on Mothers or Fathers Day so PCS decided to give them a gift of their own. They purchased a bunch of daffodils for every female client, regardless if they had children or not, and gave these to them along with a card. They then purchased a pair of funky patterned socks and a card for every male client.

Easter Childrens Drawing Competition

PCS opened this up to the general public and each winner received an e-voucher for Smyths Toy Shop.

Window Displays

There were many 'Stay Home, Stay Safe' pictures, cards and drawings that were drawn by Care Staffs children which were put in Clients windows to help brighten their day and make them smile.

PCS Positivity Blog and Appreciation Award

PCS employed an external Counsellor to provide support to Staff and give them someone to talk to during these unprecedented times. As a second channel of communication, they asked the counsellor to create a positivity blog that was offered free of charge to every staff member. With many staff working round the clock and sacrificing not seeing their own families to ensure the safety of the clients, it has been a very uncertain and unsettling time so this service and blog have been invaluable. As well as this, PCS wanted to show their staff just how much they appreciate them, especially the past few months. To do this they sent a personalised email to every staff member thanking them for everything they have done and confirming their nomination for the 'PCS appreciation Award'. The award was given to 6 staff members which were randomly pulled out from a hat, the prize was 2 tickets to Chester Zoo. The staff are all huge animal lovers so wanted to help support the Zoo as well as thanking their staff.

Hairdressing Services

The carers at PCS picked up their scissors and gave the clients a haircut! For many clients that normally venture out to the hairdressers, it was fantastic for them to feel their best and keep some level of normality.

PPE and more

Many of the staff have been suffering from excessive use of hand sanitizer, so PCS purchased handcreams from one of the carers sisters to give to all the staff. This also supported a small local business. As well as this, they sourced mask headbands and visors for all care staff to keep them safe and looking pretty!

Covid Testing

PCS were honoured to be chosen by Public Health England to represent the North West and take part in a COVID-19 testing survey in accordance to the spread of the disease within the homecare setting. All Staff were provided with the opportunity to take a COVID-19 test and they set up a mobile testing centre at our head office in Skelmersdale. PCS said "This was an honour for us and we were happy to help provide the government with information/statistics in relation to COVID-19 and the homecare industry".

There is always something happening at PCS! Our Director Nicola is always planning some kind of Competition, Charity Event, Party or Awards.

ADVERTISING FEATURE

Every day of the year, the Staff at The Liberty Centre are fantastic but during lockdown they have been truly amazing.

Their aim to be available for anyone who needs to contact them, was especially important during lockdown as there was an increased risk of abuse and violence for many people. Making contact was difficult as going outside the home was restricted, for example, many children were not going to school and lots of people were not at work as normal.

To offer some information, hope and contact options, they use an active social media campaign on their Facebook, Instagram and Twitter accounts – sharing information about what domestic abuse is and how to keep safe at home as well as using positive affirmations to encourage people to look after themselves.

They have continued to provide the 24-Helpline, the normal office number and the team have supported each other using WhatsApp.

As well as this they introduced Live Chat on their website, during the day and evening, as another way of making contact, asking for help, getting information and support.

The residents at the refuge have all been great. They have coped with the situation extremely well and worked really hard to ensure the risk of infection is at the lowest it can be. There have been no cases of coronavirus and that is largely down to their commitment and hard work.

There has been exercise classes, baking, gardening, bingo, decorating, film nights, sports events and garden parties. Refuge staff and residents have all pulled together to make sure the refuge has been open throughout COVID.

Face-to-face meetings and group work including the Liberty Programme were paused. Some staff have worked from home, and staff have continued to offer support to individuals and families who have been affected by domestic abuse, using the phone or FaceTime.

The Ormskirk office will re-open next week and appointments are available.

Residents exercise green fingers

GARDENING therapy has been keeping residents at a Skelmersdale care home active throughout the warmer summer months.

Residents at Aaron Crest Care Home, on Tanhouse Road, Skelmersdale, have been keeping themselves busy by exercising their green fingers.

One resident, Raymond Peet, has taken on the self-appointed role as head groundsman as temperatures soared into the mid-to-high twenties recently. He took responsibility for keeping the home's plants watered as baking hot weather hit the UK.

He said: "Plants are very thirsty in the hot weather and it's important to keep their roots wet."

Emma Willoughby, home manager at Aaron Crest Care Home, said: "With ongoing restrictions in place for the safety of residents during the pandemic, our garden has proven highly therapeutic resource for many, providing an place to stay active and occupied."

"As well as tending to the plants, residents have been enjoying arts and crafts sessions in the garden, which have been very successful. We're sure the garden will continue to be a popular space for our residents to enjoy while the sun shines."

ALSLEY LODGE

Welcome to Alsley Lodge

A delightful purpose built care home in the peaceful surroundings of Rufford, Lancashire...

Relax

The prime objective of our home is to promote and foster health and wellbeing. On admission of each resident, an assessment of need is performed by a senior member of the care team, from which a Care Plan is created.

Dine

Alsley Lodge is well known for its superb restaurant reputation. Our two cooks' marvellous culinary skills translate into delectable gourmet meals every day of the week. We offer an extensive, nutritious menu providing variety and choices, according to residents' preferences.

Care

At Alsley Lodge, we aim to provide an exceptionally high level of care and to ensure that each resident is treated with utmost respect, their privacy protected and their dignity preserved. Our goal is to support individuality, promote independence and to encourage our residents to exercise choice in all aspects of their care.

We strive to ensure that our residents live their lives to the full, not just adding years to their lives, but more importantly life to their years.

"Alsley Lodge – Lovely residence, beautiful rooms with a homely atmosphere, very friendly helpful staff. Lots of activities going on throughout the day. Beauty, hair barber, football softball etc. Nice meals, friendly chef, cleaning and maintenance staff, all make you feel very welcome. Lots of reassurance for the family and clients. Obviously good staff at the helm as the ship appears to run very well. My father even made the Xmas lunch outing, even though he was only there for respite. Our family highly recommend this lovely Care Home. Just wish there were more respite beds."

Our residents' happiness and serenity is of paramount importance. Care programmes and activities at Alsley Lodge are designed accordingly, to support individuality and independence. Each resident is encouraged to exercise choice in all aspects of their care.

During lockdown, our residents were not able to see family and friends, so there is where the extraordinary team at Alsley Lodge stepped up and made it a time to remember – for nice reasons.

Many staff at Alsley Lodge stopped seeing their own families to ensure they could continue the highest level of care to the residents. They thought outside the box and came up with some fantastic ways to bring something new and exciting to Alsley Lodge.

THESE INCLUDED:

Wine and Cheese Nights

The residents gathered round platters of delicious cheeses, crackers and accompaniments and chatted the day away in each other company. Coupled with a glass of wine here and there, it really gave the residents something to enjoy.

Ice Cream Van Visits

These visits we're a huge hit! During the heatwave the staff arranged for an ice cream van to come down and park in the grounds. This enabled the residents safely to be able to visit the ice cream van themselves, something lots of them have not done for many, many years. This was so popular and bought back so many fond memories for the residents, they arranged this to be a monthly visit!

'Wimbledon' at Home

The staff purchased a tennis tournament DVD and played it for the residents to watch. They all sat down to watch each match unfold and enjoyed every moment. This was all washed down with a glass of Pimms and strawberries, what better way to spend your afternoon!

Alsley Lodge prides itself on going above and beyond for their residents. During lockdown this was apparent more than ever. This really helped to keep the morale up for both residents and staff and they have thoroughly enjoyed spending the last 3 months together.

Simone - made in the Royal Navy!

Community activist appointed Honorary Lieutenant Commander by the Queen

A PROMINANT 'trailblazer and influencer' has been appointed Honorary Lieutenant Commander for the Royal Navy and Royal Marines, by the Queen.

Simone Roche MBE, who is one of five honorary officers from the north in the Royal Navy - and the only female, is the founder of Northern Power Women and Northern Power Futures - campaigns to accelerate gender equality and social mobility from the north of England.

Simone, who grew up in Halsall, and who also lived in Southport, is a former Scarisbrick Hall and KGV student

She was appointed by the Queen to her new role and will undergo a training programme to provide the necessary background knowledge and key skills to undertake representative duties on behalf of the Naval Service.

Simone said: "I joined the Royal Navy at the age of 18, so this feels like returning home. I can now reflect and wax lyrical about how integral the values and opportunities it afforded me are to my life and career, and how they have made me who I am. As the recruitment campaign said, 'I was made in the Royal Navy'. And, lo and behold, I'm back again!"

Honorary officers in the Royal Navy bring a breadth of experience and contribute in their own distinct way to strengthen the Naval Service's ties with the communities it serves.

Simone said: "It is my great honour to accept this position in the Royal Navy as one of the honorary officers, particularly as there are only around 30 across the world who hold the title.

"Honorary officers of the RNR come from a variety of high-profile backgrounds across industry, sport and charitable organisations. Their role is to represent the Royal Navy through their day to day lives, including ceremonial duties.

"I want to use this position to create greater diversity in the Navy, as well as to show the community the huge number of amazing and different career paths the Navy has to offer, with first rate skills training, incredible support and opportunities to see the world."

Simone was awarded the MBE in 2018 for services to gender equality in the North.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

In Loving Memory of

SHEILA MARGARET RAINFORD

who passed away peacefully aged 84, on 4th June 2020, with her family around her

Sheila was cherished by her late Husband Tony and a devoted Mum to Val, Lesley, Julie and John; a dear Mum-in-Law to Ian, Lesley and Mick, and a much loved Grandma, Great-Grandma, Sister and Aunt. She will be fondly remembered by all her family and friends in Burscough and Wigan.

The family wishes to acknowledge with deep appreciation the many expressions of love, concern and kindness shown to them during their bereavement. Despite Covid-19 restrictions Sheila's funeral, held on 25th June, was beautiful and touching, due to the caring ministrations of Fr Daley and Hunters. Heartfelt thanks to all her family, especially those senior members, who attended in these difficult circumstances, those who travelled long distances, and those friends and neighbours who showed their support along the funeral procession route to St John's RC Church in Lathom. Kind donations in Sheila's memory are being gratefully received for The British Heart Foundation and Diabetes UK. All enquiries to Hunters Funeral Services, 128b Burscough Street, Ormskirk, L39 2EY Tel 01695 572997

WILSON JACK

Jack's family would like to express thanks to relatives, friends and neighbours for their messages of sympathy, flowers and kind donations to Dementia UK. Also, a special thank you to the district nurses for their dedicated care to Jack over many years. Thanks also to Joanne at Hunters Dignity Funeral Services for their guidance and support at this sad time.

Vauxhall is trying out its latest styling on the new Mokka

It's the designers who are stars in this show

IT'S a good thing Vauxhall was introduced to electric power before the two-metre rule was brought in. Right now it isn't so much embracing it as coming up to it in a nightclub, reeling off its worst chat-up line and promptly snogging the face off it.

Already it's introduced the Corsa – sorry, Corsa-e – in zero emissions form first, and it's about to do the same with the Vivaro people carrier, but with the new Mokka you'd be forgiven for thinking that the very idea of burning things to make energy is a bit of an afterthought.

You have to get right down to the very bottom of Vauxhall's press release, way past all the bits about a 201-mile range and the 100kW DC fast charging system, which allows an 80% charge-up in just 30 minutes, before you find it: "The newcomer will also be offered with particularly efficient petrol and diesel engines."

I can almost hear the chap in charge of ensuring the new Mokka can still run on deceased dinosaurs sobbing in a corner, miffed that months of hard graft have been summed up in a single sentence. Then again, his mates in the zero emissions department, try as they might, haven't exactly been getting the limelight either.

Nope, it's the designers who are very much the stars of this week's show because – and I never thought I'd write this – the Vauxhall Mokka looks fantastic.

While it's a little bit shorter than the outgoing car, the new arrival also has a longer wheel-base, and that while the real-world benefit is a tad more interior space, it also gives the Mokka more of a wheel-at-each-corner stance, which helps looks-wise.

Beneath the skin it also uses the same basic ingredients as Peugeot's 208 and the current DS3 Crossback, but thanks to what Vauxhall's calling its Vizor design treatment, it's got a chiselled front end that almost looks like it could've come off a Victor from the Seventies.

The best news is that apparently this rather scrawny-eyed new demeanour is part of a whole new look for Vauxhall – so chances are this isn't a million miles off how the next Astra will look.

Maybe it's not as radical as what Ford were doing when it did its

LIFE ON CARS

'New Edge' look for the Puma, Focus and Ka two decades ago, but you get the idea.

The best bit? Normally when companies launch cars that look like this they're inevitably one-offs that end up being watered down when they reach the showrooms a couple of years later – but the new Mokka is heading here towards the end of the summer.

In other words, Vauxhall doesn't have time to ruin it.

You never know, it might even come in feelgood electric form too...
